BITTERROMA
ASSOLUTO

Bitteroma Assoluto

Technical data

Type: Bitter.
Bottle size: cl.70
Alcohol content: 25.8% Vol.
Appearance: intense ruby red color.
Aroma: overwhelming aromas of bunches of aromatic herbs attributable to the origin of the raw material; from rosemary rather than thyme, from sage to juniper, from helichrysum to mugwort that follow each other enriched with hints of orange, tamarind and cloves.
Taste: on the palate it is dry but enveloping, decisive and inviting, with a very remarkable and concentrated bitter note with a persistent and very long finish all attributable to citrus.

Curiosities

An intense product, which presents itself as a protagonist in the bitter market. Wrapped in a label that smells of art, the Bitteroma Assoluto embodies the best hints of Sardinia and its herbs. Transversal and democratic in the combinations, the citrus finish and the predominant note of bitter make it perfect in mixology.

Suggestions

Simply perfect for an aperitif even alone or almost, served with ice, a slice of blood orange and a few drops of Angostura.
